ABSTRACT

The Oklahoma Indian education program is financed and operated under a contract between the U.S. Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of Interior, and the State Department of Education. Supervision of the program is the responsibility of the State Department of Education as authorized by the Johnson O'Malley (JOM) Act of 1936. To qualify for JOM Special Program funds, a school must have an eligible Indian enrollment which reflects a minimum 10 percent of their total enrollment. The amount of JOM funds a local school district receives is based on the number of Indian student enrolled, financial needs of the school, and educational needs of participating Indian students. There were 147 schools participating in JOM Special Programs during the 1973-74 school year. There was a total Indian enrollment of 14,630 with an average attendance of 12,486 (86 percent Indian as compared to 84 percent total attendance) in JOM schools. There were 625 Indian high school graduates and 1,177 Indian eighth grade graduates. Statistical reports (on dropout rates, enrollment, attendance, county allocations, administrative and area office expenditures, and budgets) with an appendix comprise the bulk of this report, though there is a short narrative describing highlights of the year (workshops, seminars, and special areas of concern such as counseling and accountability). COVER

The cover illustration represents the emblem in the center of the Oklahoma State Flag, which is an Osage Warrior's buckskin shield, decorated with pendant eagle feathers. Across the face of the shield runs the red man's calumet, or pipe of peace, crossed with the white man's peace symbol, the olive branch. The shield implies defensive or protective warfare. The small crosses on the shield are the Indian's graphic sign for stars, which indicate lofty ideals or a purpose for high endeavor. The important symbols, however, are the calumet and the olive branch. These override the shield, the symbol of war, and represent a predominate love of peace by a united people, and the union of the Indian Territory and the Oklahoma Territory into the one great State of Oklahoma.

FOREWORD

The Indian Education Program in Oklahoma is financed and operated under the provision of a contract between the U.S. Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior, and the State Department of Education. The supervision of the program is carried out entirely by the State Department of Education as authorized by the Johnson-O'Malley Act of 1936. Prior to 1947, the program was administered by the Indian Bureau.

This Twenty-Seventh Annual Report of Indian Education in Oklahoma has been prepared by the Division of Indian Education to comply with State Contract No. GOOC14202121.

We wish to extend our appreciation to the Muskogee and Anadarko Area Offices and to their staff members for their cooperation and assistance in implementing education programs to improve the educational opportunities of Indian students in Oklahoma.

NARRATIVE

The Indian Division of the State Department of Education completed the 1973-74 school year with the most significant advancements, according to the records, since the inception of the Johnson-O'Malley Program in the State of Oklahoma.

To qualify for Johnson-O'Malley Special Program funds, a school must have an Indian enrollment on file in the office of Indian Education reflecting a minimum of 10% of their total enrollment to be eligible Indian students. An eligible Indian student is one whose name appears on a given enrollment submitted by the school and has been verified by our office as one-fourth or more degree Indian, based on the information requested on the enrollment. Schools with less than 10% Indian enrollment may qualify by showing an exceptional need in a given area.

After having established qualifications by the enrollment of eligible Indian students, the schools were then required to have a Community Indian Education Committee, of at least five members, duly elected by the Indian people of each school district. The purpose of this Committee is to insure Indian parental involvement in determining the educational needs of their children. The primary responsibility of the Committee is to assist the school of their respective district in defining the needs of Indian students, developing projects to be funded by Johnson-O'Malley, and to approve the projects submitted to the Indian Division of the State Department of Education.

The amount of Johnson-O'Malley funds a local school district receives is based on the number of eligible Indian students enrolled, financial need of the school, and educational needs of the participating Indian students.

During school year 1973-74, a comprehensive training program for teachers who teach Indian students was implemented. The major objective of the in-service training was to make the teachers more aware of the many unique problems faced by Indian students and help the teachers better understand the Indian culture and historical background. Four centers were established and 180 teachers were enrolled. Many outstanding Indian leaders were involved as consultants. The centers were operated for 8 two hour sessions and the overall attendance of the participants was 97 percent. The program reached such outstanding success that a planning committee for future and expanded study of Teacher Awareness of Indian students was formed and continued programs will be forthcoming with the new school year.

In the 1973-74 school year, the most intense series of activities of the administration of Indian Education was involvement in meeting to help to bridge the communication gap between the Community Indian Education Committees and Superintendents or Principals of the Johnson-O'Malley schools. Regional meetings were held across the State for the purpose of defining the role and responsibilities of the Committee members and the school administrators in jointly developing Special Programs. A one-week workshop was conducted at East Central Oklahoma State University for the chairmen of the committees, or a representative, and school administrators. Two hundred and twelve (212) committee members were in attendance. It was determined in this workshop that a better understanding and cooperation between committees and administrators had developed. The input and Program support of the Indian committees has opened the door of the new educational horizon for Indian students. To the Division of Indian Education, this determination is an educational breakthrough in meeting the needs of the Indian students. To the Johnson-O'Malley Program this determination will surely be an impact on future allocations to the State of Oklahoma.

Another Johnson-O'Malley funding during this year was a Teacher Aide workshop held at and conducted by East Central Oklahoma State University. The number of aides attending this two week seminar was 152.

One of the most defined concentrated areas of the Indian Education Division during the 1973-74 operational transition has been that of Accountability. In qualifying this area of responsibility, the Indian Education Administration was in constant contact with Indian Education Coordinators who reside in areas with a high concentration of Indian students across the State of Oklahoma. Since the Coordinators work directly with the administrators in Johnson-O'Malley schools, work personally with Indian students, and make numerous visits in the homes of the Indian patrons they are in an unexcelled position to evaluate the needs assessment of a given school, evaluate goals and objectives, and for monitoring and evaluating each Project Title of a Johnson-O'Malley Special Program in their respective areas.

There were 147 schools participating in Johnson-O'Malley Special Programs during the 1973-74 school year. There was a total Indian enrollment of 14,630 with an average daily attendance (ADA) of 12,486 and an attendance per cent of 86. This compares to an 84 per cent attendance for all pupils attending Johnson-O'Malley schools. The number of Indian graduates from Johnson-O'Malley high schools were 625 and 1,177 graduated from the eighth grade.

Two county cooperative Programs were also funded by the Johnson-O'Malley Program. A Speech Therapy program in Cherokee County and an Art Program in Comanche County, also two complete full time tutorial programs at the Indian Hospitals located in Talihina and Tahlequah.

Graduating seniors were counseled by a representative of the Indian Education Division and informed and encouraged to take advantage of the educational opportunities available through the Bureau of Indian Affairs and other sources for post-high school training. Indian seniors in schools not participating in Johnson-O'Malley are also provided this same service. This counseling service has been highly successful in increasing the number of Indian pursuing post-high school courses and guiding them into fields in which they are most likely to be successful.

Special recognition is extended by the Division of Indian Education to the Johnson-O'Malley school administrators and their entire personnel for the dedication of their efforts in effecting their Programs to meet the educational needs of the Indian students, their cooperation with the Community Indian Education Committees, and their courtesies to the representatives of the Division, and to the hundreds of Indian parents who willingly gave of their time and efforts, to help make the school year 1973-74 a very special and productive experience for Indian students in the public schools of Oklahoma.

OKLAHOMA STATE PLAN

(For Administration of Johnson-O'Malley Funds)

1973-74

I. PURPOSE:

The purpose of this plan is to: outline the procedure to follow in administering Johnson-O'Malley funds received by the State of Oklahoma, to define the Indian Parental participation role in the development of local education programs and how the Community Indian Education Committee works cooperatively with the local school in developing and carrying out a local program.

II. PROVISION:

Johnson-O'Malley funds may be requested by the State for Special Programs Primarily Affecting Indian Students and/or Parental Costs (kindergarten through twelfth grade), Administration, and Basic Support. Basic Support funds will be limited to meeting educational problems under extraordinary circumstances as determined by the contractor and the State Department of Education.

III. HOW A SCHOOL QUALIFIES FOR JOHNSON-O'MALLEY PROGRAMS:

To qualify for Johnson-O'Malley funds from the State, the local school district must meet the following requirements:

(a) A minimum of 10% of the total school enrollment must be eligible Indian students. Schools with less than 10% Indian enrollment may be approved by the Indian Division, State Department of Education, for Johnson-O'Malley funds by showing an exceptional need in a given area based on the availability of funds.

(b) Johnson-O'Malley funds shall supplement and not supplant local and state funds.

(c) The amount of Johnson-O'Malley funds a school district receives is based on the number of eligible Indian students enrolled, financial need of the school district and improving educational need of the participants, as determined by the Indian Education Division of the State Department of Education.

(d) Eligible Indian students shall include only those who are verified as being one-fourth (¼) or more degree Indian blood.

(e) To insure maximum local effort, the school district must levy the full 35 mills.

(f) The local school district must be eligible for and receive State Aid.

(g) The request for Johnson-O'Malley funds must be justified on the financial need after all sources of revenue (local, state and federal) are considered, including P. L. 874 and P. L. 92-318.

(h) When a school has a general fund surplus in excess of 10% of the school district's operating budget a documented analysis of the district's financial needs must be made by the state before the program can be funded.

IV. PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT AND ROLE OF THE SCHOOL ADMINISTRATOR:

To best meet specific educational needs of Indian students, it shall be the responsibility of the local school administrator and the Community Indian Education Committee to jointly develop special programs. They must collect base line data, make accurate needs assessment, set up sequential priorities of educational deficiencies and submit proposed project(s) and budgetary breakdowns to the State by May 15th annually.

(a) The local school administrator will give public notice at least five working days in advance to all parents and/or guardians of Indian students attending said school that an annual meeting is to be held on school owned property for the purpose of electing a minimum of five members, a majority of whom will serve a two-year term and the remainder serving a one-year term on the Community Indian Education Committee. The two-year members will be those receiving the majority of votes. The date is to be the first Tuesday in February between the hours of 6:00 P.M. and 9:00 P.M. The current Community Indian Education Committee will be in charge of the election procedure. The new Committee will take office the date of their election.

(b) The school administrator shall submit to the Indian Division of the State Department of Education in proposal form giving a brief description of the project(s) and duties to be performed by each Johnson-O'Malley funded employee, Project Title, grade level assigned, total students enrolled in the project, total number of Indian students enrolled, teacher aide supervisor, total cost of program, total amount requested from Indian Education and indicating the amount of Johnson-O'Malley funds available from each prior project.

(c) The proposal(s) shall indicate the involvement of the Community Indian Education Committee by the affixed signatures of the majority of the committee.

(d) When it is necessary to modify an existing program it must be approved in advance by the local Community Indian Education Committee and the Indian Division of the State Department of Education.

(e) All personnel employed with the assistance of Johnson-O'Malley funds will be governed by the official policies of the school district in which they are employed.

(f) Funds for special programs may be requested by local school districts for a variety of services that directly or indirectly improve the educational opportunity of Indian students. Special programs may include, but are not limited to the following: remedial education, compensatory education, counseling and guidance, kindergarten, teacher aides, tutorial programs, summer programs, workshops, inservice training for staff and Community Indian Education Committee members, arts and crafts, special teachers in specialized areas, supplies and equipment and special Parental Cost.

(g) In implementing special programs, Johnson-O'Malley funds shall not be used to foster segregation.

(h) Upon receipt and approval of properly executed State claims, supported by copies of paid school claims and/or invoices, the Indian Division of the State Department of Education will reimburse the local school district quarterly, for actual expenditures of approved Johnson-O'Malley programs.

(i) Equipment purchased with the assistance of Johnson-O'Malley funds will be identified as such and an annual report will be submitted to the Indian Education Division, State Department of Education, by the Administrator.

V. ROLE AND FUNCTION OF COMMUNITY INDIAN EDUCATION COMMITTEE:

(a) All members of the Community Indian Education Committee must be residents of the local school district's transportation area. The majority of the Committee shall be composed of Indian parents. School employees and their spouses and board members are not eligible to serve on the Committee.

(b) By a majority vote of the district Community Indian Education Committee, they shall have the authority to organize and govern themselves in respect to the number of meetings, filling and declaring vacancies, electing officers and conducting all business that is in their area of responsibility. The committee has no hiring or firing authority; they are limited to making recommendations.

(c) The primary responsibility of the Community Indian Education Committee shall be to assist in defining the needs of Indian students, developing projects to be funded by Johnson-O'Malley and to concur in the projects submitted to the Indian Education Division of the State Department of Education. They shall assist in the evaluation of the educational projects. It shall be the responsibility of the Community Indian Education Committee to determine the eligible Parental Cost items requested in the projects.

VI. PARENTAL COST AND STUDENT ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES:

(a) For a student to receive Parental Cost assistance he must have been verified as to ¼ or more degree Indian blood by the Indian Division of the State Department of Education.

(b) Parental Cost is a financial need program, therefore students must be defined as such. The criteria established by the United States Department of Agriculture for the free or reduced School Lunch program will be used to make this determination.

(c) Parental Cost payments may be made in an emergency to eligible students after consideration and approval by a majority of the Community Indian Education Committee to meet immediate academic needs. Compliance with Article VI, Section (b) must be documented; any such awards are subject to availability of local funds.

(d) Documented evidence must be presented, upon request, to the Indian Division of the State Department of Education that consideration was given to all eligible Indian students, kindergarten through twelfth grade.

(e) All Parental Cost expenses will be paid and accounted for by the Board of Education of the local school district.

(f) Eligible Parental Cost items is any item that the majority of the Community Indian Education Committee determines will improve the educational opportunity of an eligible Indian student, and that no funds from the school's general fund account was used to purchase the same item for a non-Indian student. All Parental Cost items must become the personal property of the eligible student for which it was purchased.

(g) Parental Cost allocations must not exceed 20% of the current total Johnson-O'Malley school funds.

(h) The Community Indian Education Committee can apply for and administer Parental Cost items for students attending a school qualified for Johnson-O'Malley, but not participating in the program by meeting the following provisions:

(1) Be requested by a group of interested Indian parents or Tribal leaders of the local school district.

(2) The Parental Cost allocation will be $20.00 per eligible student. Section (b) or (c) and (d) of Article VI must apply for distribution by committee.

(3) All Parental Cost items requested be signed by a majority of the Community Indian Education Committee and submitted to the Indian Division of the State Department of Education for concurrence prior to purchasing.

(4) All payments for purchased items will be made by the Indian Division of the State Department of Education.

VII. ROLE AND FUNCTION OF THE INDIAN DIVISION OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS:

The Indian Division of the State Department of Education shall submit to the Bureau of Indian Affairs a budget estimate on or before March 15th each year for the second succeeding fiscal year. The budget request shall be accompanied by justifications based on the best available information from schools working in cooperation with local Community Indian Education Committees. On or before March 15th, an annual review of the proposed Johnson-O'Malley Program and budget request shall be made by State, Elected Tribal leaders, and Bureau officials. Based on this review and visitations to schools, a preliminary State Johnson-O'Malley contract is negotiated between the Bureau of Indian Affairs and the State Department of Education to provide needed financial support within funds available to the Bureau.

An annual report of the prior school year program shall be submitted on or before October 15th each year and shall contain narrative and statistical information regarding the Johnson-O'Malley program in the previous school year.

It is mutually agreed by the Indian Division of the State Department of Education and the Bureau of Indian Affairs officials that the statistical and financial information by counties and local school districts list the data with the report to show the summaries by types of programs as presented in the budget.

(a) Normally, administration costs should not exceed 5% of the total budget.

(b) The State Department of Education agrees to provide the following costs of services for Johnson-O'Malley Indian Education programs in Oklahoma:
(1) Rent, (2) Utilities, (3) Postage and (4) State personnel fees.

(c) Any unobligated funds received from the Bureau of Indian Affairs for any fiscal year shall be offset against the Johnson-O'Malley budget for the ensuing fiscal year.

(d) Periodic and annual visitations to Johnson-O'Malley schools are to be made by State Johnson-O'Malley personnel. When it is the desire of Bureau officials and members of the Johnson-O'Malley Committees to visit these schools for the purpose of observation they may do so under "Access to Facilities" clause of the State Contract, and it shall be a joint venture with Johnson-O'Malley personnel. Visits are to be made to the extent possible within budget and time limitations. Johnson-O'Malley personnel may visit schools enrolling Indian students that are not supported by Johnson-O'Malley funds for the purpose of informing school administrators that assistance may be available to educate their Indian student population if they qualify. Program deficiencies that exist which cannot be fully funded locally or through other sources will form the basis for future Johnson-O'Malley budgetary requests.

(e) The Bureau of Indian Affairs will be responsible for an annual evaluation of programs in their administrative area. They will make copies available to the school, Community Indian Education Committee and the Indian Division of the State Department of Education.

This Oklahoma State Plan is in complete agreement with the Federal Johnson-O'Malley regulations and is not in conflict with Oklahoma State School Laws.
